Annotated Bibliography

Primary sources

https://www.cia.gov/news-information/featured-story-archive /2008-featured-story-archive/navajo

      -code-talkers/index.html. Central Intelligence Agency, Central kinds of codes they used to help win the war. Also, they show many different languages that the Americans used in WWI such as the Choctaw.

      Philip Johnston was an American Indian born on the Navajo

      Reservation, he read a newspaper, later he gave the military to use the Navajo language during the war.

Nez, Chester, and Judith Schiess. Avila. Code Talker. Dutton Caliber, 2018.

      This source is about how Chester Nez viewed many different ideas that he had on the Code Talkers, he was the original 29 men that first signed up. Weeks later, after training, he was put in a platoon 382nd, he talked about the battles that broke out and people that were with him during that time, he also took many important photos in history from the Code Talkers.

https://www.intelligence.gov/index.php/people/barrier-breakers-in-history/453-navajo-code- Intelligence Agency, 26

Apr. 2018, talkers. National Intelligence. "We Are."

This source explains how the Navajo code talkers made an unbreakable code translating to unwritten Navajo words that made the Marines win the war at Iwo Jima.

Leal, Reynaldo. "Remembering the Navajo Code Talkers."

VAntage Point, 14 Aug. 2019, https://www.blogs.va.gov/VAntage/64650/navajo-code-talkers/.

The Marines Corps, had 29 Navajos to create an unbreakable code using a "Type one code." Which creates navajo words with english letter to create special words using Native language. This source has good information and had a video about each veteran involved with the Navajo code talkers

Lee, Karen. "Navajo Code Talkers - Topics on Newspapers.com."

Topics, 19 Sept. 2018,

https://www.newspapers.com/topics/world-war2/navajo-code-talkers/

This source has different kinds of newspaper articles that explains what the Navajo code talkers were designated to do.

Paris, Jessica, and National Intelligence. "1942: Navajo Code Talkers." Navajo Code Talkers Breaking Barriers ,

Secondary sources

https://www.archives.gov/publications/prologue/2001/winter/navajo-c Ode -talkers.html "'Semper Fidelis, Code Talkers.'"

The National Archives and Records Administration, National Archives and Records Administration, https://www.archives.gov/publications/prologue/2001/winter/navajo-co de-talkers.html.

This source explains each code that was used to help win the war.

https://www.azcentral.com/story/news/local/arizona/2018/07/11/navaj o-code-talker-facts-unbreakable-code/460262002/

This source has good clear pictures and a video that explains what the Navajo code talkers did to help win World War II https://www.countable.us/articles/1621-fact-tuesday-navajo-code-talk ers Silversmith, Shondiin. "Navajo Code Talkers Created an Unbreakable Code. It Helped Win World War II." Azcentral, Arizona

Republic, 5 Aug. 2019, https://www.azcentral.com/story/news/local/arizona/2018/07/11/navajo-code-talker-facts-unbreakable-code/460262002/. This source explains how the armed forces were having major problems with communicating with the U.S. world war 2 became a literal war of words.

https://www.freeonlineresearchpapers.com/navajo-code-talkers.

Free Online Research Papers,

https://www.freeonlineresearchpapers.com/navajo-code-talkers.

This source has a lot of information about how the military did ' whatever they could to protect them.

https://www.historynet.com/world-war-ii-navajo-code-talkers.html

Staff, HistoryNet. "Codemakers: History of the Navajo Code Talkers."

HistoryNet, HistoryNet, 1 Dec. 2017, https://www.historynet.com/world-war-ii-navajo-code-talkers.htm. This source explains what the Navajo code talkers did while they waited for the enemies to attack.

https://libguides.colostate.edu/History/wwII Librarians, Subject.

"History: World War II." Research Guides, https://libguides.colostate.edu/History/wwII.

https://library.nau.edu/speccoll/exhibits/indigenous_voices/navajo/cod etalkers.html "Indigenous Voices of the Colorado Plateau." Cline Library - Indigenous Voices of the Colorado Plateau - Navajo Code Talkers, https://library.nau.edu/speccoll/exhibits/indigenous _voices/navajo/codetalkers.html.
this source explains how the navajo code talkers were fluent speakers and how they used each code.

https://navajocodetalkers.org "Navajo Code Talkers." Interviews, Videos & More, https://navajocodetalkers.org/.
This sources good because it had videos and pictures about the Navajo code talkers I can use in my project

Simkin, John.https://spartacus-educational.com/2WWnavajo.htm Spartacus Educational, Spartacus Educational, https://spartacus-educational.com/2WWnavajo.htm.
This source explains how the Navajo code talkers were formed before they left the reservation.

Townsend, Kenneth W. "Navajo Code Talkers History." Navajo Code Talker, University of New Mexico Press, 2000, http://navajopeople.org/navajo-code-talker.htm.

This source explains how the Navajo code talkers help win the war.